

Josh Shields

Josh was hired as a forester for the Manistee and Mason-Lake Conservation Districts in 2014. He has a B.S. in Applied Ecology, M.S. in Forest Ecology and management and Ph. D. in Forestry. He is a Certified Forester, Certified Wildlife Biologist, and Certified Pesticide Applicator. His experience includes forest inventory and timber sales, plant and animal surveys and habitat managements, and ecological research and education.