

Stacie Bytwork

Stacie Bytwork is the President of the Manistee Area Chamber of Commerce. For nearly six years, Stacie had led the Chamber through dynamic and visionary growth, and has delivered programming on the needs of the area businesses and surrounding community.

She initiated a county-wide leadership program that develops young professionals to be community leaders and help with workforce retention goals. The program is currently in its fifth year, and is thriving from its community partners. She also serves on several area boards, including the Michigan Association of Chamber Professionals, and Networks Northwest Workforce Development Board.

Stacie holds a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from Western Michigan University. She spent nearly ten years with the Kalamazoo County Government at the 8th District and 9th Circuit Court, and her last position was at the Health & Community Services Administration Department.

Stacie and her husband, Troy, moved from Kalamazoo to live and work along the area's amazing water resources. Stacie enjoys spending time with her husband, Troy, daughters Elia and Rubie, and puppy Tubby. She teaches kettle bell class at Manistee Health & Fitness Center, loves to run and is committed to health and fitness. Stacie and her family enjoy traveling, spending time at the beach and boating on Lake Michigan.
