

Mr. Middleton is the Manager of the Municipal Service Group in the Manistee and St. Johns Spicer Group offices. He has 23 years of experience, including 22 years with Spicer Group, in designing and managing projects of all types, sizes and complexities. Mr. Middleton has specialized in municipal and water resources engineering since 1994. He has both a Bachelor and Master of Science degrees in Civil Engineering from Michigan Technological University and is a registered Professional Engineer. Mr. Middleton has served as the City Engineer for Manistee since October 2013.