

Tamara Buswinka is President and Senior Planner for Latitude 44 Consulting, a firm specializing in planning, community, and economic development services and is representing the Alliance for Economic Success. She has a Bachelor's degree in Environmental Policy from the University of Michigan and a Master's degree in Urban and Regional Planning from Michigan State University. She is certified by the American Institute of Certified Planners and the Form Based Code Institute. Tamara has received two Michigan Association of Planning awards for work she has done. With 23 years of experience working with communities, developers, and organizations, Tamara continues to help clients become development ready. The development ready status ensures that projects are accomplished through a reliable, predictable, and timely process and in a manner that meets community expectations and vision. Tamara lives in Manistee, Michigan and enjoys sailing, mountain biking, and snow skiing but her greatest joy is spending time with her family when they all come home from college.
