

Marc Miller

Chamber of Commerce

Marc Miller is the Economic Development Director with the Manistee Area Chamber of Commerce. Miller's 25+ year career focuses on expertise in government, community and stakeholder engagement, coalition building, and policy work on outdoor recreation, natural resources, and economic development.

The Chamber acts as Manistee County's Economic Development Organization (EDO), which is outsourced as a private-public partnership. Marc's position focuses on economic development, attraction, and growth; outdoor recreation and tourism; placemaking, housing needs; growing entrepreneurs; and building a collaborative environment and effective communications. Serving in this position for over the past three years, he has helped businesses expand, create jobs, and attract investment to the county with new projects and developments. He has also assisted entrepreneurs and new business start-ups.
